“ I send my deepest condolences to you and your family, this does not fit the normal order of life. A parent should not have to bury their child. I pray you can find some comfort in all the wonderful memories you have of Steven. I pray God puts his loving arms around you and helps you through this very difficult time.

“ Patti, Dave and Rick my heart is with you as you navigate through this. It was an honor to watch Steven grow from a little boy to such a handsome young man. I am grateful my family and I were able to be part of his life. Always remember memories can never be taken away and will last a lifetime.
