“ Felton and Susan,

You both have so deeply blessed my heart through your love of the Lord and your faithfulness to each other! Susan, I miss you already, but I rejoice that you are now in Jesus' arms!! Felton, you are one of the most outstanding examples of faithfulness to your wife as she struggled with her health these last few years! I honor you both for your kindness and generosity to others! The Lord will honor and love you both forever!!

“ Mom you were the greatest mother anyone could ask for. Mom we know you are at peace and you have no more pain and suffering. Christmas will never be the same with out you here, but I know you are watching over us now. Mom I am sure Christopher is happy to greet you through those heavenly doors with a fishing pole in hand. Until we meet again Love you Mom Ronnie “ Grandma you will be missed by many. So many stories and memories to tell. Fishing, now you could catch some fish. I can remember it like yesterday sitting down by the pond and you and grandpa teaching Betty and I how to fish. Those were the good ol days. Driving around getting ice cream on those hot summer days and your long hair blowing in the wind. Climbing the fire tower with you, looking out for fires. Spending time at the creek with you and grandpa. I loved every minute of it. Sure gonna miss you, but we will meet again and I will bring the fishing poles.

Love,
