“ I am so sad to learn of Susan's passing. When I first met the family when I became engaged to her late brother Ed, she was so welcoming. She was also a little trickster who told her young children that I was a leprechaun and I had a pot of gold hidden. We had a few good laughs as the children were trying to develop a plan to get the gold. So many, many good memories of her. She touched all that she met. Rest in peace, dear Susie.
Much love, Sheila Hershey
