“ It was an honor to not only care for, but to befriend “Miss Dinnie.” She was strong, kind and loyal in everything she did. I will miss her prayers and warm hugs.

“ I will never forget the first time I ever met Dinnie. She was so kind, so generous and just welcomed me with open arms. She was such a beautiful person and I was so blessed to have married into this family where I could witness first hand her love of her family. May you each know how much Shea, Chastan and I praying for your peace and comfort as you say you goodbye to a loving mother, wife, sister, aunt and grandma!!! We love you!!
