“ Our deepest sympathy to the family. We camped with Jerry and Emma Lou at Goosebay years ago. We loved talking with Jerry and my husband especially enjoyed the few times they went fishing together.

“ Jerry was always so good to Richard (Richie) and I. He would just call the house to check up and see how we were doing. He always called me sweetie and I always got a good hug from him. Besides Richard's dad, Jerry always taught Richard a few tricks of the carpenter trade. He knew that if he needed anything, we were always there to help and I was happy when he would call and ask for Richard to help him out with something. Jerry will be missed very much as Emma Lou is still. I know he is in a better place. Our thoughts are with the boys and their family.
