

Thomas Morrison

August 30, 1941 - May 7, 2008

Mr. Morrison was a retired Systems Analyst for Washington Gas Light Company after 31 years of service. He was a veteran of the United States Air Force, stationed at Bolling Air Force Base. He graduated with honors from South Eastern University with a degree in accounting. He retired as Softball Coach at the College of Southern Maryland after 21 years of service, where he compiled a record of 429-197-1, seven Region XX Championships, eight Maryland JUCO State Championships, six National Tournament appearances, inducted into CSM's Athletic Hall of Fame in 2007, and nominated for NJCAA's Region XX Hall of Fame in 2008. During his thirty-five years with the Waldorf American Little League, he coached the first Maryland Team to win the Junior League World Series in 1986, finished second in Senior League Baseball World Series in 1988, won the Big League Softball World Series in 1998 - 99, was estimated to have coached more than 1,000 youth, and the only coach in Little League history to win a World Series Championship in both baseball and softball. One of the fondest memories he had in coaching was when he coached his three grandsons on the same team. He always enjoyed a friendly game of poker with friends.
