“ My deepest sympathies to you Kimmie, Ross and Branden and families, on the loss of Tommy, so suddenly and taken way too soon from this earth. May all of you find comfort in the treasured memories your hold in your heart. May you find yourself smiling as you move through the days ahead when you recall an excursion, fishing trip, family gathering, etc. where Tommy had everyone laughing and smiling. So true said that he did not know a stranger and everyone he met was a friend. My prayers are with in the coming days.
Love to All, Rolinda

“ I will miss Tommy not only as a thoughtful neighbor, but as a dear, sweet friend. When he would occasionally stop by my house from work to see if I needed anything we would end up discussing some of the most interesting and sometimes weird topics. Topics from music, animals, cars and racing, Basically everything under the sun. One thing he never tired of talking about was his family and how lucky he was to have met and married Kim. Forever free of pain he will live in our hearts forever.
