“ I met Tim and Pam in 1983. We'd both just purchased homes within a week of each other in St Charles on good old Darnell Ct. Oh the wonderful memories for our families. I knew from the moment I met Tim he had a huge heart and was going to be someone that will always remain a friend . . . Well it went a step further, Pam and Tim are my Ashley's Godparents. They are the best and Tim will always be in our hearts. Pam, Brandon and Brittany, you know my thoughts, my prayers and my heart are forever with you. You are family. Fly High with the Angels Tim.

*Much Love,

“ My fondest memories of Tim were the many weekends we spent riding bikes and the trips to Ocean City for french fries, but mostly for my very first bike week to Daytona in 1993. We always had a great time with Tim, Pam and sometimes Brandon. Our prayer is that your memories will keep him forever in your hearts and that they will help you through this sad time. We will miss you.

“ The minute I met Tim I knew I had a friend for life. He was just that kind of guy. Going on a Cruise with Tim and Pam was one the best times I've had. Tim told me "ok Janice, you have to pick one night during the Cruise to have some mixed drinks". He called it "Drunk Night". The four of us (Tim, Pam, Bill and I), had so much fun.

I am so sorry the ugly word (Cancer) had to come to such a wonderful guy. It's not fair but God has his plans.

You are going to missed so much. My thoughts and prayers are with all of you. Janice “ Tim & I worked together for 17 years. He was always ready to help or give advice if I had questions about my car, an appliance at home, or life in general. Over the course of our working together, he shared stories about family, Harley's, friends and his many past antics with his friends & brother Mike. One particular story comes to mind that I'd like to share...he & his friend (I believe it was Dave) had bought a hearse for transportation & would drive down the road with the windows down, music blaring & the black curtains flying in the wind. The particularly graphic way in which he told the story was hilarious.

As well as being a comic, Tim cherished his family & that was never more evident than when he took care of his mother for several years. He spoke often of Pam, doing things with Brandon & talking to Brittany on the phone.

Tim was a dear friend that will never be forgotten. Why God lets such bad things happen to such good people is beyond me.

Tim, you fought long & hard & I know you weren't ready to go. You always told me "I'm trying" when I told you to try & stay positive, that you could beat this thing, there was light at the end of the tunnel. Along with everyone else that knew you, we're so sorry that light never appeared. ❤️

“ Once Tim found out that I liked black jellybeans he had Pam bring them to me. The last time him sent them there was a lot of black jellybeans and 1 red one. Pam told me that Tim said the red one was from the heart. Tim was a very caring person and I will never forget his kindness to me. My thoughts and prayers are with all of you. Claudia
