Timmy will be deeply missed and is so loved by us all.

Timmy has the biggest heart and the greatest sense of humor. He could make anyone laugh with his quick wit, stories and mannerisms. He enjoyed tinkering on his computer, Alabama football, NASCAR (Tony Stewart was his favorite) but most of all Timmy loved spending time with his family. Timmy would often talk fondly of his time growing up in Golden Beach and all the neighborhood friends. He loved spending time with all the Gales and could go on and on about all the fun times at the campground and out on the boat. Timmy loved candy and would always supply family and friends with more candy than they ever wanted. He has various jobs growing up and after the accident, he worked at Bert's 50s diner and as a union plumber for R.M. Thornton. He was proud to be union and has fond memories of the guys he worked with. One of Timmy's greatest loves was his dog, Savannah and he will be happy to not have to share her love.
