You Travis are my brother in every sense of the word, we had amazing adventures and did things together that seem impossible to explain. From the first time we went to Baltimore 20 years ago to see a game, or when i got tickets for us to see Farve in his last game we were inseparable. "Were" is hard to write, my hope is you will always be apart of me and walking beside me whispering your goofy ideas in my ear and guiding me with your spirit. Always with your ideas "let me try this alittle different you'll see it's going to work" you would tell me. Travis you are kind and gentle man you will forever be in my heart, my children have been asking for Uncle Travis they miss you as well. Forever Travis you will define what it means to be a friend to me. The bond we have isn't broken with your passing i will carry you with me for the rest of my days.. I Love You, Jesse
