“ I love you Aunt Velma. Thank you for the best years of my childhood. I grew up in Elmhurst, New York in my grandparents house along with Velma, my mom Muriel (Velma's Sister), and my sister Jackie and myself from infancy to 14 years old. I have lots of fun memories of everyone. My favorite picture of Velma and me is: I am laying on Velma's bed and she is sitting on the bed, but the best part of the picture is that I am wearing Velma's bathrobe and her bowling shoes..... very funny picture, which is posted on this site under "photos & videos". Love, your niece Dorie Maffetone

“ So sorry for your loss! I visited Velma as an Outreach librarian and brought her audiobooks.. She was a very warm and lively conversationalist. I always enjoyed visiting with her. You will be in my prayers.

I think my sister was a brave person. She always had difficulty with her eyes and she felt she was prepared for the day when she would not have any sight. I was there the day it happened. With NO WARNING her sight left her. Yes she was upset but her firm Catholic faith saw her thru with winning colors. Rest quietly Vel. Muriel
