

Viktoria Hamann Schofield

January 13, 1955 - August 28, 2025

Viktoria (Vicki) Hamann Schofield, 70, of Waldorf, Maryland passed peacefully in her home on August 28th, 2025. She was the daughter of Henry Hamann and Viktoria Niefanger Hamann, born to them on January 13, 1955 in Ames, Iowa.

Vicki is predeceased by her parents, Henry and Viktoria Hamann. She is survived by her husband Kenneth of 45 years; son Andrew (Ashleigh) Schofield; grandchildren Hailey and Ryan Schofield; daughter Viktoria Erin (Eric) Barger; brother Myron (Gail) Hamann; and numerous relatives and beloved friends.

After graduating high school, Viktoria earned her bachelor's degree in Linguistics from Georgetown University. She went on to a successful career as a Program Manager, first at National Electric Manufacturers Association (NEMA), before finishing her career with American Association of State Highway Transportation Officials (AASHTO).

Vicki enjoyed traveling, baking (especially cookies for her grand-doggies), gardening, sewing and crocheting, attending baseball games, cheering for her grandkids' sports, and spending time with her family and her friends. Vicki was a devoted Kansas City Chiefs fan. She was a pioneer in Maryland Little League District 7 becoming one of the first female softball and baseball umpires in 1995.

A Memorial will be held on September 19th, 2025 from 11am to 1pm in Raymond Funeral Services Chapel, 5635 Washington Ave, La Plata, MD.

In lieu of flowers, the family asks that donations be made to the American Heart Association in Viktoria's name.

“ Ken and family, please accept my heartfelt condolences at the passing of your lovely wife/mother. I had the pleasure of knowing Vicki through mutual friends and would visit together at various occasions. I will always remember fun moments at OBX, New Year's celebrations and gatherings. May her memory always bring you comfort and peace.
