

Virginia "Ginger" Payne Maxey

August 6, 1948 - August 4, 2024

Virginia Payne Maxey, affectionately known as Ginger, passed away on August 4, 2024, surrounded by her loving family. Born on August 6, 1948, in Framingham, MA, Ginger was the cherished daughter of M. Carol Payne and William Jackson Payne Sr., both of whom preceded her in death. She was also preceded in death by her beloved siblings, William "Jack" Payne Jr. and Patricia Payne, nephew Lonny Velozo, and great-niece Lonnie Velozo.

Ginger is survived by her loving nieces and nephews, Nathan (Ryan), Ginger, and Derek Velozo, and Alexis Payne (Ben), as well as her great-niece and great-nephews, Bronson and Remington Velozo, and Jaiden Contey-Payne. She is also survived by her stepson from a previous marriage, Jamieson Roseberry.

Ginger was known to many as "Auntee" and was celebrated for her caring and selfless nature. Her compassionate spirit was evident through her many acts of kindness, including her remarkable donation of a kidney to her late husband, Bobby Maxey. Ginger attended nursing school in Boston and later worked as a homemaker and caregiver to various family members. Her dedication to helping others was a cornerstone of her life.

In 1966, Ginger's radiant beauty and lively personality earned her the title of Miss Fall River. She was a woman of many talents, with a flair for knitting, crocheting, and crafting beautiful black coral jewelry during her time in the Virgin Islands. Ginger had a deep love for Bob Dylan's music and an enduring passion for animals, which reflected her kind and generous heart.

A celebration of Ginger's life will be held at Raymond Funeral Service, La Plata, MD on Saturday, August 10, 2024 from 10am to 12pm. A future urn interment will take place at Terrance Hill Cemetery in Walpole, MA, at a later date for immediate family and friends. In lieu of flowers, the family requests that donations be made to the Charles County Animal Shelter in Hughesville, MD, honoring Ginger's love for all creatures.

Ginger's vibrant spirit, boundless creativity, and profound compassion will be deeply missed but fondly remembered by all who had the privilege of knowing her.

“ Deeply saddened to hear of Ginger's loss; and it is a loss for anyone who knew her. She and our sister Elaine remained close friends all of Lainie's life. It was Ginger who came to her rescue during our sister's final illness. And also came all the way from Md. to give our father care . May you all find joy and consolation during this sad time. We, the Reinhagen family, are long time Payne family friends. And she became a fourth sister for me. Mary Lou Reinhagen
