

Virginia "Ginnie" Swart Bacon

December 3, 1955 - February 14, 2020

Virginia "Ginnie" Swart Bacon, age 64 of Charlotte Hall, Maryland, died February 14, 2020 at the University Hospital in Baltimore, Maryland.

She was a beloved wife, mother, sister, and friend. Ginnie always loved unconditionally with her arms and door always open. Her grandchildren were the light of her life. She received a Bachelors Degree in Science for business administration at Clarion University in Clarion, Pennsylvania. She was employed by the Department of Transportation as a Management Program Specialist for 35 plus years.

Born in Syracuse, New York, she was the daughter of the late Richard Houghton Swart, Jr. and the late Patricia Pettigrew.

She is survived by her husband, Greg L. Bacon; her sons, Bryan M. Travers, Timothy R. Travers, and Nathan E. Travers; her brothers, Douglas Swart, William Swart, and Peter Swart. She is also survived by five grandchildren.

Due to restrictions on public gatherings and the ongoing COVID-19 pandemic, the gathering and Memorial Service previously scheduled for Saturday, April 18, 2020 have been postponed indefinitely and will be rescheduled once public gatherings are again permitted. If you have any questions or concerns, please contact the funeral home at 301-934-2920.

Donations are asked to the American Diabetes Association, PO Box 15829,
Arlington, VA 2215 (diabetes.org).

Tribute Wall

“ Virginia "Ginnie" Swart Bacon

October 08, 2023 at 10:45 PM

“ Virginia "Ginnie" Swart Bacon

October 04, 2023 at 03:12 PM

“ I just learned of Ginnie's passing and am truly saddened. She possessed a very sweet soul and kind spirit! May God continue to keep her family wrapped in his loving arms during their time of sorrow.

Vera - April 28, 2020 at 04:12 PM

“ It may have been many years ago, but we can still taste Ginnie's Texas Sheet cake and lasagna. Our prayers are with her family.

Berti-Jo Leymeister - April 05, 2020 at 06:24 PM