“ I met Vivian through her daughter, Charlotte, who was a dear, caring and giving person, much like her mother. I met Charlotte because I loved her artwork, and often bought an original for my home. I also taught most of her children in kindergarten at Good Shepherd Church. I think I missed Kevin because I had already taken another position before he was 5. Vivian was involved in so many aspects of the parish life at St. Peter's Church, and recently at Our Lady Help of Christians Church. My husband, Bill, had framed artwork for Vivian, Charlotte, and Kevin; and Vivian always reminded me on Sundays to tell Bill that he should be at Mass each Sunday. Vivian had her opinions and freely shared them with us and many others. We will always remember her devotion to her family and her Catholic religion. I'll miss her at Mass each Sunday and at Church activities. I'm glad to know that she's with her dear Charlotte, and with so many bridge friends who went to heaven before her. Much love and sympathy, Fran Bryner
