“ Dear Peltzer Family,

Were sorry to hear of Wally's passing. That leaves Bob as the end of an era. I am the oldest of the Hausman clan, but there are six of us and all of us still kicking. Eva was 65 yesterday and I will be 79 soon - - unbelievable!

We remember Aunt Tillie's 100th birthday party, and all of our children were there. That was the last time we saw Derek, Brett and Rodney. We are sorry for your loss, and thinking of you all has brought back a lot of memories.

Sorry we can't make the trip to Maryland at this time, as we are leaving in the morning for Murphy, NC to our place in the mountains. But warm wishes to all of you, and our thoughts and prayers are with you at this time.
