

Walter Anthony Mack

April 30, 1965 - June 15, 2014

Walter Anthony Mack, aka “Walt Luv,” a long-time resident of Charles County, MD suddenly passed away on June 15, 2014 at the University of MD Charles Regional Medical Center in La Plata, MD. Walter graduated from Lackey High School in 1984 and went on to serve as a building service worker for the Charles County Public School System for 23 years. He was also CEO of his own cleaning service company where he serviced many buildings in the local area to include the Potomac Heights Baptist Church. In his spare time, Walter enrolled in the College of Southern Maryland to study computer information technology. He enjoyed fishing, sports, vacationing in Florida, making DVDs, flying remote control helicopters, and spending time with family and friends. His most recent hobbies involved swimming, automotive repair, and collecting watches, jerseys, and hats. Walter fellowshiped at Church Without Walls under Pastors Stanley “Uncle Wayne” and Aunt Lejoy Montgomery. Walter was well known and respected in the community and enjoyed helping others. He loved his family and would do anything for them.

Walter is preceded in death by his mother, Julia Rosalie Mack. He is survived by his wife, Agnes Paulette Mack; one son, Curtis Farmer; one daughter, Sylvia Farmer; his father, William Walter Mack Jr.; his brothers, Maurice Mack and Timothy Mack; his sisters, Crystal Mack and Janeen Mack; and two grandchildren, Daeqwan Farmer and Tavierre Holloman. He is also survived by 31 nieces and nephews and seven God children.

Visitation will be on Monday, June 23, 2014 from 9AM until time of Funeral Service at 11AM at the Potomac Heights Baptist Church, 37 Glymont Road, Indian Head, MD. Interment will follow at the Sacred Heart Cemetery on St. Mary's Avenue in La Plata, MD.
