“ I'm so sorry to hear about Warren. Wayne, you and Warren shared a long and special friendship that only brothers can know, and you will continue to treasure. He lived a good life with lots of laughter, fun, love and family. Now he is at peace. You and your family are in my thoughts and prayers.

“ I had the honor and privilege to be Warren's wife for the past 15 years. Our love was unconditional and he was a wonderful stepfather to my son, his wife, and "Papa" to our two beautiful grandsons. God was good that Warren got to experience love, security and the love of family in the latter part of his life. He was the love of my life and he showed me his love every day we had together. We had so much fun in our lives together and he never left my side last year when I had cancer. Who could have predicted that I would be cancer free and then he was diagnosed with it. His smile and laughter will be greatly missed and I will cherish every memory of our life together.

“ every time I look at Joe I see warren,their mannerisms and actions are exactly the same. Their hands are just alike. How incredibly sad for us all. May he rest in peace. Our memories will have to be enough until we meet again

“ We had many wonderful times over 40 years and I have learned that twins have an unconditional love, a bond stronger than just siblings, well-deserved. It was my hope that we would share out twilight years together and I pray that our memories bring laughter to our hearts when we remember Warren everyday. All my love forever, your sister-in-law, Lynn.
