“ Wayne and I were friends through high school and then went our separate ways. About ten years ago, we reconnected. He was still as warm, friendly, and caring as he had been over fifty years ago. The world has lost another of its finest citizens.

“ Wayne has always been a bright light...shining joy, laughter, love to his MANY friends! I had the pleasure of going to school with Wayne- -what a nice guy! Wayne always had a bright smile to share, and love to give his friends. I do not think he ever met a stranger...meaning soon after talking to Wayne...they would become his new friends. Rest in peace dear old friend...you are loved and will remain in our hearts forever. Connie Townshend Halkovich

“ Wayne you will truly be missed. I've always said there was more than one of you. There could be multiple functions across this region and somehow you were always at them. Just a testament of how generous of a person you were here on earth. RIP my friend.

“ Wayne was such a wonderful and nice friend. As a fellow member of the DCHand-Dance Club, we shared our love of dancing. I can see his smile now, and am so happy I shared a big hug with him in May at the Special World of Dance celebration. He murmured something in my ear about "this being his last time" to enjoy this event. That made me feel sad, but now, I know he's smiling in Heaven with God. Rest in peace and happiness, my good friend, Wayne. You'll be greatly missed.

“ Wayne and I meet many years ago down on Minnesota Ave. Southeast DC, we reconnected over 40 years ago. and have been close friends since. Everyone and anyone that meet Wayne became his friend, a true gentleman and straight up good man. Wayne and I are brother Veteran's, Disabled American Veterans we often talked about our military service, Wayne was Air Force I was Army. the past few months Joe Yost and Frank Davis and myself visited Wayne shared many stories, we laughed at many of the old stories , Wayne would always remind us when we added a little extra to the story. And we talked about some close friends we have lost over the past few years. At the end of our visits we would all hug tell each other love you brother, Wayne would walk us out sit on the porch and wave to us as we pulled off. I am going to miss those visits I am going to miss Wayne the good man, good friend my Brother, we have lost one of the finest men I have ever known. From the first time you meet Wayne you meet his family he told you all about them he was very proud of them all and loved talking about them, it was a very difficult time when he lost his son. He fought hard everyday to stay with his family and friends as long as he could, he didn't lose the fight he didn't give up, his body got tired and needed a rest. I love my brother Veteran and friend Wayne Coryell, I hope that one day I have done enough that we will meet again, sit talk and laugh about those good times we had as kids and as adults once again. You rest now Brother, God Bless you. Although we can no longer hold you in our arms we will Forever hold you in our hearts. Moe & Marie Grimes
