“ There is so much i could say about wendy.when i meet katie about 10 years ago Wendy quickly became a mother figure to me i lost my mom at a very young age and growing up was no to fun for me but when Wendy came into my life she showed me that love and affection and support i was desperately seeking since i lost my mom.wendy treated me as part of the family.onley if everyone knew how big of a influence Wendy really was in my life i honestly can say if it wasn't for her and katie as well i don't think i would even be on this Earth to write this post.she loved Olivia and Roman with every bit of her heart she spoiled our kids her grand babies more then any grandmother i ever seen do in my life lol.my life has been forever changed because of this.if u Kno me u also Kno i love to mess around and just act silly sumtimes and Wendy was like the only one that would not feed into my crap and give it right back to me and me and her would just go back and forth till one of us just stopped and laughed and i loved that about her most people would just get in their feeling's and get mad or upset bud not Wendy lol.i will never understand why the Lord keeps taking home all my loved ones and i guess I'll never Kno till my time comes.i love u maa and allways will i promise to take care of ur grandbabies and ur daughter and do right by them especially now that ur looking down on my butt.rest easy mom.
