“ Just wanted to share my sadness to read about Billy's passing at such a young age. Although we haven't seen each other in almost 50 years, he remained a very special guy in my life from a time when we were very young; you might even call it "puppy love" I hope time passes quickly to ease your grief and bring smiles to your faces when you think of him. My sister and I remember him always singing "blue suede shoes"
