“ Bill has been a friend since we were in school in Suitland many decades ago. When I began work at the Census Bureau, I met Linda, with whom I worked for many, many years and who has become a close friend. It's so hard realizing that Bill's gone - it's always been Linda and Bill. He was the quiet presence in her life, the strong companion who was always by her side through the very hard times they shared. This is such a great loss to all of us who knew this sweet, kind man.
