“ My buddy Marvin , he was one of a kind. He never had a bad word about anyone . He loved his golf, seafood and cars. He was a member of the Southern Maryland Mustang club. His cars always shined like new. He could tell you about all types of cars. I enjoyed talking to him and having lunch. Our car club will be giving away a trophy way at our car show this Saturday at Patuxent high school in Calvert co md, in his memory. I'll always will remember Marvin and our times together. Getting pulled over my MSP after leaving Ape Hangars was a hoot. The trooper was surprised who was driving his green bullets mustang and me his passenger a deputy sheriff. God Bless and keep Marvin till we meet again.
