“ Never had the pleasure of meeting pappy gene but I have heard many stories . My daughter shelby is heartbroken she will not get to hug her pappy anymore. She misses him tremendously. May he rest in peace and shine down over them all . He will be watching over you and be with you as a gentle breeze, he will be hugging you. The sun on your cheek he will be kissing your cheek. Take comfort in the little things. For life passes us way too fast. So sorry for your family's loss.

“ Although I didn't know William very long when I go visit his daughter Lisa and her husband Dan William always greet me with a smile and pleasant and friendly I would bring him my homemade lemon pie or fruit cake and he always have a smile on his face when I gave it to him he liked both so well so if you ever eat lemon pie or fruitcake always think of William and watch you have a big smile on your face love and peace to the family and always know he is watching over you with a smile.
