

Wilma Faye Clem

January 13, 1935 - June 14, 2024

Wilma "Faye" Clem, 89 of White Plains Maryland passed away on June 14, 2024. She was born in Virginia to Charles and Anne Golladay.

After graduating high school, Faye went and worked for the Federal Government as a budget analyst. She married Warren Clem and together they had a son, Michael.

Faye enjoyed spending time with her family, friends, and neighbors. Her three grandchildren and six great grandchildren meant everything to her. She loved her cat "Buzz" who was her loyal companion. She loved the outdoors and spent most of her days feeding her wild birds, turkeys, and deer.

Along with her parents and beloved husband, Warren, she is predeceased by her granddaughter Victoria Clem. She is survived by her loving son Michael Clem, his wife Linda, grandchildren Jaclyn Leonard (Bryan), Sean Clem (Samantha) and six great grandchildren, Delilah, Laycie, Jamesyn, Gatlin, Bryan III, and Camden.

Services will be private.

Tribute Wall

JB

“ I will miss my loving sister. I was her little brother, Jerry Edwin.

Jerry Edwin Golladay Fayes Brother - March 06, 2025 at 07:32 PM

JB

“ My Sister Faye and I enjoyed a good life growing up together at 418 K Street N.E.

We both attended schools in D.C.

Warren Fayes Husband and I loved detailing their car and Faye would fix us a great dinner as a reward. Life with Faye & Warren has given me many beautiful memories to reflect on.

Jerry Edwin Golladay Fayes Brother - March 06, 2025 at 06:59 PM

TD

“ My deepest condolences to the family 🕊️ I've known Ms.Clem for as long as my time with my career, 35 years.She was truly a very sweet and loving person.Rest in peace Ms.Clem, you will be missed

Tina from Safeway pharmacy

Tina Dyer - July 15, 2024 at 08:39 PM