

Wilson Leo Abell

October 18, 1932 - September 19, 2014

Wilson Leo Abell of Faulkner, MD died on September 19, 2014 at his residence with Hospice. He was 81 years old.

Mr. Abell was a florist for 40 plus years with Blackiston Florist in Washington, DC and Waldorf Florist and McKay's Florist. He was a member of St. Ignatius Catholic Church in Chapel Point, MD. He was a bird lover and liked yard sales, thrift stores, antiques, flowers, and having parties (especially at Christmas time). In his earlier years (age 16-30), he had been a Franciscan Brother with the Franciscan Monastery in Washington, DC. His favorite expression to others was "Pretty good – not too bad."

He is the son of the late James Abell and the late Mary Davis Abell. He is also predeceased by his beloved companion, Harry Baker; three brothers, James, Joseph, and Frank Abell; and one sister, Mary Blanche Boarman.

He is survived by a sister-in-law, Rosemary Abell; six nephews, Rocky, Ricky, Chris, Jay, Mike, and Jamie Abell; 10 nieces, Linda Garvey, Peggy Estevez, Janet Williams, Kathy Wells, Suzanne O'Connor, Charlotte Scaggs, Mary Johnson, Becky Snipes, Penny Saavedra, and Judy Cusic. Also survived by many great nieces, nephews, and great-greats.
